

THE KAURI MUSEUM

Real New Zealand Heritage

HISTORIC TOTARA HOUSE

Open throughout the year by appointment only

TUDOR COLLINS – ‘MAN OF MANY FACES’

Until 31 May 2019

Bushworker, cook, soldier, sailor, businessman, entrepreneur, fisherman, hunter, roading contractor, farmer and townsman, the inimitable Tudor Washington Collins was truly a man of many faces, and his life and personality are reflected throughout the range of his photographic subject matter-showcased in The Kauri Museum's latest special exhibition.

‘THE PERFECT ACCESSORY’

22 March 2019

Textile exhibition featuring a selection of perfect accessories; items that complete an outfit to make it ‘just right’ for the occasion.

ANZAC DAY

25 April 2019

A combined service of Paparoa RSA and The Kauri Museum will take place at the Museum, with fall in at the Matakohe War Memorial Hall at 10.30am.

ANZAC EXHIBITION

‘The Return Home; Life after War’

Exhibition 19 April - 5 June 2019

MATARIKI

Pipiri 10 June – Hōngongoi 21 July 2019

Join us in our celebration of Maori New Year as the Matariki star cluster rises over the Kaipara. The theme for schools participating this year is ‘Kaimoana o Otamatea’. An exhibition of carving created by local carvers from matching, blank pieces of kauri will also be part of our Matariki event

THE KAURI MUSEUM PHOTOGRAPHY AWARDS

10 June - 8 July 2019 Entries accepted

9 August - 6 October 2019 Opening function and exhibition open

A themed photography competition and exhibition showcasing the creativity of the Kaipara.

SETTLERS DAY

5 October 2019

Where new settlers and visitors alike are invited to get acquainted with the pioneering past.

OTAMATEA QUILTER'S EXHIBITION

25 October - 24 November 2019

Annual exhibition from the Otamatea Quilters group, showcasing the craft of patchwork and quilting.

The quilters will be in attendance at the Museum - 25, 26, 27, 28 October

‘A DAY AT MATAKOHE RACES’

27 November 2019 - 30 March 2020

The Melbourne or Auckland Cups are not the only occasions for dressing up and going to the races. Matakohe once boasted its own racecourse and a day at Matakohe races was a big day out! View Fashions in the Field from decades past.

HERITAGE CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

1 December 2019 - 5 January 2020

Heritage decorations will be on show throughout the rooms in the Sterling Wing. These wonderful decorations are a combination of museum artifacts and hand crafted replicas.

Keep an eye on our website for information relating to our school holiday programmes

www.kaurimuseum.com